

Who Am I?

I hail from the Kingdom of Heaven; I am a citizen there, a daughter of the King. I am from a Royal Priesthood, a Holy Nation, and a people belonging to the Most High God of Love. Our God is beautiful, compassionate, merciful, and gracious, forgiving and slow to anger. I am presently here on earth as an ambassador of heaven. You see we, my family and I, are here to prepare for my wedding day and my marriage to my beloved, King Jesus. He is back at home in Heaven preparing a place for us.

I am a stranger and an alien to this place, and I will not conform to this world, but will renew myself daily by reading my marriage covenant (The Word) with my bridegroom. I must spend time with Him each day in prayer and in His Word – this is my time when it is just me and my beloved talking and eating the bread of life. This gives me strength, joy, peace, and fulfillment while I am walking on this earth. I take communion and commit myself to Him as often as possible.

In my morning prayers I pray, and I tell my beloved how much I love Him, I give him my heart, and I ask Him to use me to further His Kingdom of love here on earth. I submit myself to him, His will, and His Authority and I give up my rights. I thank Him for all He has done for me, you see He paid a high price to marry me, and His desire for me is great! I tell Him how I cannot wait to see Him and how His love amazes me! My beloved is mine, and I am His! He has not left me alone here you see, He is always with me and He has given me His Holy Spirit. He teaches me, counsels me, guides me, corrects me, comforts me, protects me and fills me with more love for my beloved and for others on earth. I ask His Holy Spirit to manifest in me, and I give Him complete control over me.

Every day I pray that my beloved gives me eyes to see in the supernatural, for discernment, wisdom, knowledge, and understanding that I may better be able to know what is going on around me and with those, I encounter. I pray that He opens my ears, so that I may hear His voice and heart and the heart of others. I pray that through my nose I will be able to smell His sweet fragrance everywhere I go, so that I will not forget Him. I pray for His words to come out of my mouth, so that only life and healing flow from me and that He puts a guard against evil on my tongue. I ask him to fill me with His thoughts, to have His mind on things, and that every thought I have is captive to Him. I give Him my hands that I may do His will and that He receive all the glory for it. I then ask Him to clothe me with His love, to fill me with His Joy, and to make us one so that I may be one with Him and Father God, and with my brothers and sisters that are here with me from Heaven.

Then I put on my armor to protect myself from the enemy, so that no weapon formed against me shall prosper, and I ask to not be led into temptation or evil. I put on my belt of truth, so that I will be able to tell when the enemy is lying to me. I put on my breastplate of righteousness, because I have right standing with my King, I must have my Gospel of Peace high heels on, so that I may bring the message of peace, harmony, and prosperity from my King to all. I protect my head with my helmet of salvation, and I tell all my testimony of how my beloved saved me from death and the enemy's grips. You see, I was once lost and now I am saved, I was blind and now I see! I then pick up my shield of faith, to extinguish all of the fiery darts of the enemy! Last, but not least, I need my Sword of the Spirit (The Word of God) on which I stand firm and pray without ceasing. I draw close to my lover and the enemy flees, because He has already conquered the enemy and my complete trust is in Him. I set my lover as a seal upon my heart and a seal on my arm. I tell everyone I meet about His love and how they too can have this amazing and powerful love. I ask for divine appointments with everyone I meet, and He shows me His wonders everyday! My family's mission while here on earth is to love our God and to show everyone how much He loves them by loving them, so that they can come be a part of the wedding. My family and I are here preaching the Good News of His love, making disciples, baptizing them, and teaching them all He has commanded us. People of the earth are being healed of broken hearts, diseases, and set free from oppressions, because the Spirit of Lord is on us and He has anointed us to do greater things than He did while He was on earth! We have overcome the enemy by the blood of the Lamb, and by the Word of our testimony, and by not loving our lives unto death. I am the Bride of Christ!
